Transfer Credit for Transients Students Policy

- Students who are enrolled at Georgia Tech may not receive credit for courses completed at another institution during the same academic term, except during the Summer term. A student must apply in advance for permission to be concurrently registered at both Georgia Tech and another institution, except during Summer term, by submitting a Petition to the Faculty.
- A course cannot be taken as a transient student if previously taken at Georgia Tech, except attempts which resulted in withdraw (W).
- No student may be considered a degree candidate unless the final 36 credit hours required for the degree are earned in residence at Georgia Tech and approved by the major school.
- Transient credit is subject to all Georgia Tech transfer credit policies.
- Courses will be reviewed upon return during the articulation process. Georgia Tech students are responsible for verifying the courses taken elsewhere will transfer back to Georgia Tech by reviewing transfer course information on the Transfer Equivalency Chart.

Transient Overview

- Transient (non-resident) credit is not computed as a part of the student's grade point average.
- A student must be active and eligible for enrollment at Georgia Tech. Students cannot request transient status if they have not completed one semester as a degree-seeking student at Georgia Tech. If your first semester at Georgia Tech results in all withdrawals for the term, you will not be eligible for transient status.
- If you are on academic Probation and at the end of the term you are enrolled at Georgia Tech your academic standing moves to Dismissal, the transient request will be null and void due to academic standing.
- It is the student's responsibility to comply with any other requirements such as prerequisites or co-requisites that the other institution may have regarding registering for classes.
- Georgia Tech does not verify if a student meets any prerequisite requirements at the transient school. This decision is at the discretion of the transient school.
- Students are responsible for completing all application requirements set by the transient institution. Students should submit this form to the transient institution if required.
- After completing the course, it is the student's responsibility to promptly request that an official transcript be sent from the other institution to:
